

ABU DHABI

The largest of the seven Emirates, Abu Dhabi has large gardens, parks, green boulevards lining the streets, high-rises, numerous shopping malls, markets, beaches and museums, all of which help make Abu Dhabi a year round destination or stopover. A vibrant and sophisticated city, Abu Dhabi offers services and facilities to suit any necessity. By day explore the city, its beaches, and numerous islands and by night enjoy a stroll on the Corniche, a meal at one of the countless restaurants or a 'shisha' by the beach. For the adventure enthusiast enjoy a round of golf at one of the many courses, scuba dive fish or enjoy one of the other various water activities. Families are well catered for with Marina Mall incorporating a fun park on its premises as well as many of the larger hotels offering kids clubs and private beaches. Abu Dhabi is growing to be a tourist haven no longer just for the business traveller but for the leisure traveller as well.

- CLIMATE: With a subtropical climate, temperatures can soar to 43°C in the summer months of April to October. November through March offers a pleasant climate, making it the best time to visit.
