Welcome to Sun Island Tours

Dear Traveller,

Sun Island Tours is proud to present our 2019 brochure featuring the best of Greece, Cyprus, and Turkey.

For almost 30 years we've been creating holidays to Greece and her islands. In this time we've seen many undisturbed isles reveal their mysteries to the intrepid traveller. Now, many more parts of Greece are suited for exploration. So while Mykonos and Santorini are popular, don't be afraid to explore other parts of the country. However, a warning: the demand for quality accommodation at all standards still outstrips availability, so it is a matter of getting in early to secure your stay, whether it be Athens or Astypalaia that you plan to visit.

In Cyprus you can be swimming in turquoise waters or walking between mountain villages. History and culture have come ashore here from Europe, the Middle East, and Africa. Yet, this is one of the world's most accessible destinations. Local Cypriots are some of the nicest people you'll ever meet, so please read about our new tours and packages that allow you to visit this sun-kissed island.

After several quiet years, Turkey is again back in the traveller's consciousness. Our tours are incredibly affordable, or if you would prefer a customised itinerary, we can assist with that as well. Come and float in a hot air balloon over the fairy chimneys of Cappadocia, or sail on a gulet from Marmaris to Fethiye. Get lost in the Grand Bazaar, and explore the battlefields of the Gallipoli peninsula. Whatever tempts you, Turkey is sure to satisfy.

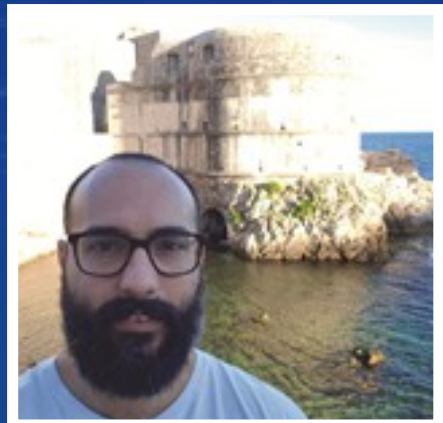

Our Groups Department is specifically skilled at organising tailor-made packages for groups of all sizes. Use our knowledge and expertise to streamline your group travel.

For further information, please contact your travel agent or visit us at www.sunislandtours.com.au. Our comprehensive website features online brochures, destination features and descriptions, and detailed specials and promotions.

Thank you to our many repeat customers, and a warm welcome to our new ones.

The historic sites on the mainland in Athens, Delphi, Meteora and Olympia, as well as those on the islands. Beaches and nightlife. Picturesque white-washed buildings of the Cycladic Islands with their blue-domed churches. Laid back, cosmopolitan lifestyle of the Dodecanese Islands. The green and fertile Ionian Islands and their beautiful cove beaches. The not-so-touristy islands of the Sporades. The stunning harbours of the Saronic Islands. The unique culture of the Northern Aegean Islands. The gyros and ouzo.

HOW?

Emirates, Etihad and Qatar Airways fly into Athens. Emirates and Qatar Airways fly into Thessaloniki. Qatar Airways also fly into Mykonos. Ferry services also operate from Turkey to Greece.

Note that the above information is a guide only and is subject to change.

TRAVELLING AROUND GREECE

MAINLAND GREECE

Athens Eleftherios Venizelos Airport is the main airport in Greece, and the major hub for international flights. While there are international flights directly into Thessaloniki, as well as islands such as Crete, Rhodes, Mykonos and Corfu; Athens is the only airport with international flights from Australia.

If you would like to visit the mainland, we recommend joining one of our escorted coach tours or packages from Athens, which visit the main sites of mainland Greece.

GREEK ISLANDS

Travelling to/from, and around the Greek Islands can either be accomplished by flight or ferry. Referring to the map below, you can see the location of various airports around Greece, however please note that it does not mean there are flights between the islands. Most island airports only have flights to/from Athens.

For instance, there are no commercial flights between Mykonos and Santorini. Therefore the only option would be to travel by ferry, or fly via Athens on a connecting flight.

Ferry reservations can only be made between islands within each island group. For instance, you can ferry between the Cycladic Islands of Santorini and Amorgos, but not between the Cycladic Island of Santorini (yellow) and the Dodecanese Island of Astypalaea (green).

FERRY RESERVATIONS & TICKETING

At the time of booking, only the date of the ferry can be confirmed, not the departure time, as schedules tend to change regularly. Our local agent will provide you with your tickets and the time of departure while you are in Greece. Tickets are either delivered to your hotel at the point of origin or will be collected by you from our local agent. Should a ferry be rescheduled or cancelled while you are in Greece (due to strikes, weather or unforeseen circumstances) our local agent will assist with alternative arrangements.

TRAVELLING ON FERRIES

There are three types of ferries in Greece – ferries, fast ferries and hydrofoils. Fast ferries and hydrofoils are usually around twice the speed of normal ferries. Most ferries only have a coffee shop on board and are not similar to a cruise. Some ferries are large and you may need to climb a narrow staircase with your luggage, as there is no baggage assistance on the ferries or hydrofoils. We do not recommend it as a form of transport for the elderly traveler.

Approximate times between ports are based on the fastest regularly available option.

GALLIPOLI

On 25 April 1915, the Australians led a massive multi-national attack on Turkey when they landed on beaches around a small cove on the western shore of the Gallipoli Peninsula. The eight and a half month campaign has become a defining period in history for Australia and Turkey, and has since created landmarks such as ANZAC Cove, the Nek, Lone Pine Cemetery, and Chunuk Bair.

Be part of the thousands that travel to Gallipoli each year to pay homage to the brave souls that lost their lives during the first major military engagement fought by Australian and New Zealand forces.
